

70387724 Irony of drug seizures # I noted the Bloomberg News article regarding the Nebraska State Patrol's seizure of 118 pounds of fentanyl and noting that the quantity was enough to kill 25 million people (Dec. 31 World-Herald). # Another seizure reported the same day involved cocaine. # Meanwhile, our Nebraska prison officials spend outlandish sums for four drugs to perform executions, while having to hide the drugs' sources. # Am I the only person to see the irony here? # If we must continue to execute the worst of the worst, c'm on, State of Nebraska, get a little creative. # Bob Urban, Wahoo, Neb. U.S. senators and the shutdown # Recently Sen. Mitch McConnell stated that if the House sends the Senate a bill that the president does not approve of, McConnell will not bring it to the floor for a vote. # This amazes me as I have always thought the way it
